

CALL FOR TUTORIAL PROPOSALS

As with previous editions of IEEE ICCS conference, IEEE ICCS 2015 (Nov. 2-4, 2015, Shenzhen, China) will be hosting a series of Tutorial Sessions (half-day) and therefore invites submission of Tutorial Proposals. Tutorials should provide a focused lecture highlighting new and emerging topics within the scope of communications.

In order to propose a tutorial to IEEE ICCS 2015, a proposal (including your name and affiliation, title of the tutorial, and the details of the tutorial) is required. The tutorial proposal should describe concisely the content, importance and timeliness of the tutorial.

Tutorial proposals should be sent to Co-Chair Phone Lin (plin@csie.ntu.edu.tw) with email title: [Proposal of ICCS Tutorial] in one all-in-one PDF no later than 30 April 2015.

The important dates:

Tutorial proposal submission due date: April 30, 2015

Tutorial proposal acceptance notification date: May 15, 2015

Each tutorial proposal must include the following sections:

- Title of tutorial
- Abstract of the tutorial
- Length of the tutorial: Half-day
- Intended audience
- Objective and motivation
- Outlines
- Names, addresses, and a short CV (no more than 300 words) of tutorial speakers and the specific parts they will cover in the tutorial
- A brief description (up to 1 page) of the technical issues that the tutorial will address, emphasizing its timeliness
- Prior history of the tutorial presentations
- Lecture experience of the tutorial speaker(s).
- If appropriate, a description of past versions of the tutorials, including number of attendees, etc
- and other information that helps us to decide the best proposals
